MINUTES OF PROCEEDINGS

Parliamentary Year 1, No. 91, Session 6

Meeting of the Parliament

Tuesday 15 March 2022

Note: (DT) signifies a decision taken at Decision Time.

The meeting opened at 2.00 pm.

- 1. Time for Reflection: Rev'd John Murdoch, Minister, St John's Kirk of Perth and St Leonard's in the Fields, Perth, led Time for Reflection.
- 2. Topical Questions: Questions were answered by a Cabinet Secretary and a Minister.
- 3. Ministerial Statement: The First Minister (Nicola Sturgeon) made a statement and answered questions on COVID-19 Update.
- 4. Ministerial Statement: The Cabinet Secretary for Rural Affairs and Islands (Mairi Gougeon) made a statement and answered questions on Developing a Catching Policy to Deliver Sustainable Fisheries Management in Scotland.
- 5. Ending Conversion Practices: Joe FitzPatrick, on behalf of the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee, moved S6M-03597—That the Parliament notes the Equalities, Human Rights and Civil Justice Committee's 1st Report, 2022, (Session 6), Report on Petition PE1817: End Conversion Therapy (SP Paper 88).

After debate, the motion was agreed to (DT).

- 6. COVID-19 – Scotland's Strategic Framework Update: The Cabinet Secretary for Covid Recovery (John Swinney) moved S6M-03617—That the Parliament welcomes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22

February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; supports the new strategic intent to manage COVID-19 effectively, primarily through adaptations and health measures that strengthen resilience and recovery, as the country rebuilds for a better future; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away and that the approach is to manage COVID-19 going forwards on the basis of four broad response categories that reflect the assessed threat; notes that the Scottish Government will aim to convert remaining COVID-19 regulations into guidance to promote good public health behaviours, while retaining the ability to regulate in future should the public health situation require it; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals, and notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage and that the Strategic Framework outlines a wide range of concrete actions that are designed to improve outcomes across society, consistent with the COVID-19 Recovery Strategy.

Murdo Fraser moved amendment S6M-03617.2—

As an amendment to motion S6M-03617 in the name of John Swinney (COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update), leave out from “welcomes” to end and insert “notes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22 February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away but believes that the public in Scotland can be trusted to act responsibly and follow guidance promoting good public health behaviours and that, accordingly, ongoing regulations are not required; notes the overwhelming public opposition to the Scottish Government’s proposals to permanently hold emergency powers to make health regulations; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals; notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage, and calls on the Scottish Government to bring forward credible proposals to tackle the NHS backlog, and invest in a national tutoring programme and school catch-up premium to support children and young people who have suffered from two years of disrupted learning.”

After debate, the amendment was disagreed to ((DT) by division: For 47, Against 65, Abstentions 0).

Jackie Baillie moved amendment S6M-03617.1—

As an amendment to motion S6M-03617 in the name of John Swinney (COVID-19 – Scotland’s Strategic Framework Update), leave out from

“welcomes” to end and insert “notes the publication of the Strategic Framework Update on 22 February 2022; offers its condolences to everyone in Scotland who has suffered loss and its gratitude to all those who have worked so hard and sacrificed so much during the pandemic; notes that Scotland is now able to look forward to the rest of 2022 with increased optimism, made possible by the remarkable progress on vaccination and in new treatments; supports the new strategic intent to manage COVID-19 effectively, primarily through adaptations and health measures that strengthen resilience and recovery, as the country rebuilds for a better future; acknowledges that the threat from COVID-19 has not gone away and considers that there is a need to maintain Test and Protect infrastructure, including free access to testing, to help monitor and contain future outbreaks; agrees that there is a need for collaborative management of COVID-19 to be shared by central and local government, wider public services, businesses, the third sector, communities and individuals; believes that future closures of businesses and services should only ever be a last resort, and that businesses should have clarity in advance about the financial support that they will receive in such a situation; further believes that all future restrictions should be subject to a vote in the Parliament; notes that the pandemic has also exacerbated inequalities, poverty and disadvantage, and agrees that addressing these areas must be the priority of delivering a successful recovery.”

After debate, the amendment was disagreed to ((DT) by division: For 21, Against 94, Abstentions 0).

The motion was then agreed to ((DT) by division: For 68, Against 46, Abstentions 0).

7. Revision to Business Programme: George Adam on behalf of the Parliamentary Bureau, moved S6M-03638—That the Parliament agrees to the following revisions to the programme of business for—

(a) Wednesday 16 March 2022—
