Air Departure Tax (Scotland) Bill

[AS PASSED]

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision for a tax on the carriage of passengers by air from airports in Scotland.

PART 1

AIR DEPARTURE TAX

1 Air departure tax

- (1) A tax (to be known as air departure tax)—
- (a) is to be charged for the carriage of passengers on any flight that begins at an airport in Scotland (see section 11),
 - (b) is to apply only in relation to the carriage of chargeable passengers (see section 2) on chargeable aircraft (see section 3), and
 - (c) is to be payable by the aircraft operator (see section 12).
- (2) Revenue Scotland is responsible for the collection and management of the tax.

PART 2

KEY CONCEPTS

Chargeable passengers and exemptions

2 Meaning of chargeable passenger

- (1) Every person carried on a flight that begins at an airport in Scotland is a chargeable passenger unless—
- (a) the person is working during the flight, or
 - (b) the person is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to the flight under any of sections 2A to 2E or regulations made under section 8.
- (2) A person is to be regarded as working during a flight only if the person is carried on the flight for the sole purpose of doing any of the following during the flight—
- (a) acting as a member of the flight crew or as a cabin attendant,
 - (b) ensuring the hygienic preparation and handling of food and drink,

- (c) carrying out work relating to the safety or security of the aircraft or of passengers or goods carried on the aircraft (which includes escorting a passenger or goods),
- (d) carrying out repairs or maintenance on the aircraft.

2A Passengers not carried for reward

- 5 (1) A passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to a flight if—
- (a) the passenger is carried on the flight in one of the circumstances set out in subsection (2), and
 - (b) the passenger is not carried for reward.
- (2) The circumstances are—
- 10 (a) the aircraft operator is required by an enactment to carry the passenger (for example, where immigration legislation requires the operator to repatriate a person who is refused entry to the United Kingdom),
- (b) the aircraft operator carries the passenger to facilitate an inspection, by the passenger, of the aircraft or its flight crew (for example, where the person is a
- 15 Civil Aviation Authority flight operations inspector),
- (c) the flight lands within the period of 72 hours before the passenger starts working in relation to any aircraft, and the passenger is carried on the flight for the sole purpose of positioning the passenger to undertake the work,
- (d) the flight departs within the period of 72 hours after the passenger finishes
- 20 working in relation to any aircraft, and the passenger is carried on the flight for the sole purpose of repositioning the passenger to where the passenger ordinarily operates or is ordinarily stationed.
- (3) A person is to be regarded as working in relation to an aircraft only if—
- (a) the passenger is working during a flight of the aircraft (as defined in section 2(2)),
 - 25 or
 - (b) the passenger is doing anything specified in section 2(2)(b) to (d) in relation to the aircraft before or after a flight of the aircraft.
- (4) In this section, “reward”, in relation to the carriage of a passenger, includes any form of consideration received or to be received wholly or partly in connection with the carriage, irrespective of the person by whom or to whom the consideration has been or is to be
- 30 given.

2B Passengers under the age of 16

A passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to a flight if—

- (a) the passenger is a child who—
- 35 (i) has not reached the age of 2 before the departure date of the flight, and
- (ii) is not allocated a separate seat before first boarding the aircraft, or
- (b) the passenger is a child who—
- (i) has not reached the age of 16 before the departure date of the flight,
- (ii) is issued with a ticket for the flight and for every other flight (if any) that is
- 40 covered by the same agreement for carriage, and

- (iii) will, according to the agreement for carriage, have standard class travel on every flight covered by the agreement for carriage.

2C Passengers carried on connected flights

If a passenger is carried on two or more connected flights, the passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to the second connected flight and each subsequent connected flight.

2D NATO passengers

- (1) A passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to a flight if—

- (a) the passenger is a NATO passenger who is carried on the flight in that capacity,
- (b) one of the following applies—
 - (i) the aircraft operator is a NATO visiting force or NATO IMHQ,
 - (ii) the passenger is carried on a charter flight, where the aircraft and its crew have been chartered by a NATO visiting force or NATO IMHQ, or
 - (iii) the passenger is carried on any other flight under an agreement for carriage, and
- (c) if paragraph (b)(ii) or (iii) applies, the charter agreement or agreement for carriage is accompanied by a declaration that complies with subsection (2).

- (2) The declaration must—

- (a) identify the flight that will carry passengers for whom the exemption under this section is claimed,
- (b) in the case of the situation referred to in subsection (1)(b)(iii), identify each passenger for whom the exemption is claimed,
- (c) certify that the passengers for whom the exemption is claimed are NATO passengers,
- (d) certify that the carriage of the NATO passengers on the flight is for official purposes, and
- (e) be signed by an authorised officer of the NATO visiting force or NATO IMHQ.

- (3) In this section—

“authorised officer”, in relation to a NATO visiting force or NATO IMHQ, means a person whose status as an authorised contracting officer has been notified by the NATO visiting force or NATO IMHQ to Revenue Scotland and, in the situation referred to in subsection (1)(b)(iii), to the aircraft operator,

“NATO IMHQ” means a headquarters or organisation designated for the purposes of any provision of the International Headquarters and Defence Organisations Act 1964,

“NATO passenger” means a passenger on a flight—

(ii) a person who is settled in the United Kingdom (within the meaning of the Immigration Act 1971 – see section 33(2A) of that Act),

“NATO visiting force” means a visiting force of a country, other than the United Kingdom, which is a party to the North Atlantic Treaty,

“North Atlantic Treaty” means the North Atlantic Treaty signed at Washington on 4 April 1949.

2E Changes of circumstance beyond passengers’ control

(1) A passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to a flight if, but for a change of circumstances beyond the passenger’s control, the passenger would be a non-chargeable passenger in relation to the flight under any of sections 2A to 2D or regulations made under section 8.

(2) Subsection (1) applies only if—

(a) the passenger has a ticket for the flight, and

(b) the change of circumstances arises after the ticket is issued or last amended.

(3) A passenger is a non-chargeable passenger in relation to a flight (“flight F”) if—

(a) the passenger is carried on flight F—

(i) because of a change of circumstances beyond the passenger’s control, but

(ii) in the course of travel that is covered by an agreement for carriage,

(b) the passenger has a ticket for every flight that is covered by the same agreement for carriage, and

(c) the departure airport, date and time, and the arrival airport, for flight F are not shown on the ticket when the ticket is issued or last amended.

(4) A change of circumstances is to be regarded as beyond a passenger’s control if it is not attributable to an act or omission of the passenger.

Chargeable aircraft and exemptions

3 Meaning of chargeable aircraft

(1) An aircraft is a chargeable aircraft in relation to a flight if it has the characteristics specified in subsection (2), unless the aircraft is a non-chargeable aircraft under section 3A or 3B or regulations made under section 8.

(2) The characteristics are that the aircraft—

(a) is a fixed-wing aircraft designed or adapted to carry persons in addition to the flight crew,

- (b) has a maximum take-off weight of 5.7 tonnes or more, and
- (c) is fuelled by kerosene.

3A Aircraft used under public service obligation

- (1) An aircraft is a non-chargeable aircraft in relation to a flight if the flight is operated under a public service obligation.
- (2) In this section, “public service obligation” means an obligation imposed by a Member State of the European Union in accordance with Article 16 of Regulation (EC) No 1008/2008 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 24 September 2008 (common rules for the operation of air services).

3B Aircraft used for military, emergency, training or research flights

- (1) An aircraft is a non-chargeable aircraft in relation to a flight if the flight is one described—
 - (a) under the heading “Aviation” in the Annex to the Directive identified in subsection (3), and
 - (b) in a paragraph under that heading that is specified in subsection (2).
- (2) The relevant paragraphs (which list aviation activities excluded from the greenhouse gas emission allowance trading scheme of the European Union) are—
 - (a) paragraph (b) (which covers military flights performed by military aircraft and customs and police flights),
 - (b) paragraph (c) (which covers flights related to search and rescue, fire-fighting flights, humanitarian flights and emergency medical service flights),
 - (c) paragraph (f) (which covers training flights performed exclusively for the purpose of obtaining a licence, or a rating in the case of cockpit flight crew where this is substantiated by an appropriate remark in the flight plan provided that the flight does not serve for the transport of passengers or cargo, or both, or for the positioning or ferrying of the aircraft),
 - (d) paragraph (g) (which covers flights performed exclusively for the purpose of scientific research or for the purpose of checking, testing or certifying aircraft or equipment whether airborne or ground-based).
- (3) The Directive referred to in subsection (1) is Directive 2003/87/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 October 2003 as interpreted in accordance with paragraphs 2.2 to 2.5 of the Annex to Commission Decision 2009/450/EC of 8 June 2009.

Other key concepts

4 Meaning of flight

- (1) In this Act, “flight”, in relation to a person, means the person’s carriage on an aircraft.
- (2) For the purpose of this Act, a person’s flight is to be regarded as—
 - (a) beginning when the person first boards the aircraft, and
 - (b) ending when the person finally disembarks from the aircraft.

5 Meaning of carriage and agreement for carriage

(1) In this Act—

“agreement for carriage”, in relation to a person, means any agreement or arrangement under which the person is carried, irrespective of—

- (a) whether the carriage is by a single carrier or successive carriers,
- (b) whether the agreement or arrangement was made by or on behalf of the person,
- (c) whether the person is carried for reward (as defined in section 2A(4)),
- (d) whether the agreement or arrangement is in writing, and
- (e) whether a ticket is issued for any flights covered by the agreement or arrangement,

“carriage” means carriage wholly or partly by air, and “carried” has a corresponding meaning.

(2) For the purpose of section 2B(b)(ii) (chargeable passenger exemption for children under 16), section 2E(3)(b) (changes of circumstance beyond passengers’ control) and schedule 1 (connected flight rules), two or more flights are to be regarded as being covered by the same agreement for carriage only if—

- (a) a ticket is issued for all the flights (whether a single ticket for all the flights or separate tickets), and
- (b) the departure time, departure airport and arrival airport for each flight are specified—
 - (i) if a single ticket is issued, on the ticket, or
 - (ii) if separate tickets are issued, on a written summary that forms part of the agreement for carriage.

6 Meaning of maximum passenger capacity and maximum take-off weight

(1) In this Act—

“maximum passenger capacity”, in relation to an aircraft, means the allowable maximum number of persons who may be seated on the aircraft, excluding members of the flight crew and cabin attendants,

“maximum take-off weight”, in relation to an aircraft, means the allowable maximum weight of the aircraft and its contents when taking off (assuming the most favourable circumstances for take-off).

(2) The allowable maximums referred to in subsection (1) must ordinarily be determined by reference to the certificate of airworthiness that is in force for the aircraft.

(3) However, if an allowable maximum referred to in subsection (1) is stated in a notice published by Revenue Scotland in relation to a class or description of aircraft, or in a notice issued by Revenue Scotland to an aircraft operator in relation to a particular aircraft, the allowable maximum is as stated in the notice.

7 Meaning of standard class travel

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, carriage on a flight is to be regarded as standard class travel if—
- 5 (a) the seats for passengers whose agreement for carriage provides for that class of travel have a pitch no greater than 1.016 metres, and
- (b) the class of travel is the only, or the most basic, class of travel available on the flight.
- (2) The pitch of a seat (“seat A”)—
- 10 (a) is the distance between a fixed point on seat A and the same point on—
- (i) the seat immediately in front of seat A, or
- (ii) if there is no seat immediately in front of seat A, the seat immediately behind seat A, and
- (b) if there is no seat immediately in front of or behind seat A, is to be determined with regard to any guidance issued by Revenue Scotland for that purpose.
- 15 (3) Whether a class of travel is the only, or the most basic, class of travel available on a flight is to be determined with regard to any guidance issued by Revenue Scotland for that purpose.

Modification of key concepts

8 Key concepts may be modified by regulations

- 20 (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make other provision concerning—
- (a) who is a chargeable passenger,
- (b) who is a non-chargeable passenger,
- (c) which aircraft are chargeable aircraft,
- (d) which aircraft are non-chargeable aircraft.
- 25 (2) Regulations under this section—
- (a) may add, change or remove—
- (i) any exemption from being a chargeable passenger or chargeable aircraft, and
- (ii) any provision that defines or otherwise explains a term or expression, and
- 30 (b) may modify this Act.

PART 3

TAX RATES

9 Tax structure

- 35 (1) The carriage of a chargeable passenger on a chargeable aircraft incurs tax at a rate that is determined by the passenger’s final destination and class of travel.
- (2) The passenger’s final destination determines which tax band applies (see section 10).

- (3) The passenger's class of travel determines which rate of tax applies within the applicable band, as follows—
- (a) the special rate applies if the aircraft is a special category aircraft,
 - (b) if the aircraft is not a special category aircraft—
 - (i) the standard rate applies if the passenger's agreement for carriage provides for standard class travel on every flight covered by the agreement,
 - (ii) the premium rate applies in any other case.
- (4) The amount of each tax rate is the amount set for that rate by the Scottish Ministers by regulations under section 10.
- (5) The final destination of a chargeable passenger carried on a flight—
- (a) is the place—
 - (i) where the flight ends, or
 - (ii) if the flight and one or more subsequent flights are connected flights, where the last connected flight ends, and
 - (b) is to be determined by reference to the passenger's ticket (if any) as it stands immediately before the flight takes off.
- (7) An aircraft is to be regarded as a special category aircraft if it has—
- (a) a maximum take-off weight of 20 tonnes or more, and
 - (b) a maximum passenger capacity of no more than 18 passengers.

10 Tax bands and rate amounts to be set by regulations

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must by regulations—
- (a) define one or more tax bands by reference to the final destination (as defined in section 9(5)) of a chargeable passenger carried on a chargeable aircraft, and
 - (b) for each band defined in accordance with paragraph (a), set the amount, or the method for calculating the amount, of each tax rate described in section 9(3).
- (1A) In preparing a draft of any regulations under subsection (1), the Scottish Ministers must have regard to the projected economic, environmental and social impacts of the proposed tax bands and tax rate amounts.
- (1B) The Scottish Ministers must keep under review the economic, environmental and social impacts of the tax bands defined and tax rate amounts set by regulations under subsection (1).
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make other provision concerning the structure of the tax.
- (3) Regulations under this section—
- (a) may add, change or remove the description of any tax band, tax rate or any provision that defines or otherwise explains a term or expression, and
 - (b) may modify this Act.

PART 4

Liability for tax

11 Taxable activity

- 5 (1) The carriage of a chargeable passenger on a chargeable aircraft, on any flight that begins at an airport in Scotland, is a taxable activity.

12 Taxable persons

- (1) Every aircraft operator that carries out a taxable activity is a taxable person.
- 10 (2) The taxable person is the taxpayer (for the purposes of the Revenue Scotland and Tax Powers Act 2014), irrespective of whether that person recovers from chargeable passengers all or any part of the cost of the tax.

Registration

13 Revenue Scotland to keep ADT register

- 15 (1) Revenue Scotland must keep a register (to be known as the ADT register) for the purpose of collecting and managing the tax.
- (2) The register is to be kept in the form that Revenue Scotland thinks fit.

- 20 (4) Revenue Scotland may publish, in the manner it thinks fit, any information derived from the register.

14 Duty to register for tax

- (1) This section applies to an aircraft operator if the operator—
- (a) is not registered for the tax, and
- 25 (b) either—

- (ii) forms an intention to do something, or to stop doing something, that will result in the operator becoming liable to make quarterly returns under section 17.
- 30 (3) The aircraft operator must, no later than 30 days after a situation described in subsection (1) arises, apply to Revenue Scotland to register for the tax.
- (4) An aircraft operator is registered for the tax if Revenue Scotland has included the operator's details in the ADT register.

15 Duty to deregister for tax

- 35 (1) Subsection (2) applies to an aircraft operator if the operator—
- (a) is registered for the tax, and

(c) either—

- (i) ceases to be liable to make quarterly returns under section 17, or
- (ii) forms an intention to do something, or to stop doing something, that will result in the operator ceasing to be liable to make quarterly returns under section 17.

- (2) The aircraft operator must, no later than 30 days after a situation described in subsection (1)(c) arises, apply to Revenue Scotland to deregister for the tax.
- (3) An aircraft operator is deregistered for the tax if Revenue Scotland has removed the operator's details from the ADT register.

Tax returns

16 Duty to make returns and pay tax

- (1) A taxable person must make tax returns in accordance with—
 - (a) section 17 (quarterly returns), or
 - (b) section 18 (occasional returns).
- (2) Where a return is made under section 17 or 18, or amended under section 83 of the Revenue Scotland and Tax Powers Act 2014, any tax payable as a result of the return or amendment must be paid at the same time as the return or amendment is made.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), tax is treated as paid if arrangements satisfactory to Revenue Scotland are made for payment of the tax.

17 Quarterly returns

- (1) Every taxable person that is not making occasional returns must make quarterly returns.
- (2) Quarterly returns are due no later than 30 days after the end of each accounting period.
- (3) In this section, “accounting period” means—
 - (a) the period—
 - (i) beginning on the date on which the person becomes a taxable person, and
 - (ii) ending on whichever of the dates mentioned in paragraph (b) occurs next, and
 - (b) each subsequent period of 3 months ending on 31 March, 30 June, 30 September, or 31 December.
- (4) A taxable person that is making quarterly returns—
 - (a) may notify Revenue Scotland that the person intends to make occasional returns instead of quarterly returns, and
 - (b) unless subsection (5) applies, is entitled to start making occasional returns instead of quarterly returns from the beginning of—
 - (i) the next accounting period to begin after the date on which Revenue Scotland receives the notice, or
 - (ii) an alternative accounting period specified by Revenue Scotland by written notice to the person.

- (5) If Revenue Scotland is not satisfied that a person giving notice under subsection (4)(a) is eligible to make occasional returns, Revenue Scotland may, by written notice, require the person to continue to make quarterly returns.

18 Occasional returns

- 5 (1) A taxable person is eligible to make occasional returns instead of quarterly returns if, on each day on which the person carries out a taxable activity, the person—
- (a) intends to carry out taxable activities on no more than 12 days in total in the 12-month period beginning on that day, and
- 10 (b) expects to incur liability, in that 12-month period, for no more than £20,000 of the tax.
- (2) Occasional returns for any taxable activity are due no later than 30 days after the date of the taxable activity.
- (3) If Revenue Scotland receives an occasional return and is not satisfied that the person making the return is eligible to make occasional returns, Revenue Scotland may, by
- 15 written notice, require the person to make quarterly returns.
- (4) Despite subsection (1), a taxable person that is required under subsection (3) to make quarterly returns—
- (a) is not eligible to make occasional returns until Revenue Scotland rescinds the requirement by written notice, but
- 20 (b) may at any time apply to Revenue Scotland for the requirement to be rescinded.
- (5) A taxable person that is making occasional returns—
- (a) is not required to make quarterly returns unless Revenue Scotland requires the person to do so under subsection (3), but
- 25 (b) may notify Revenue Scotland that the person intends to make quarterly returns instead of occasional returns, in which case the person may move to making quarterly returns from the beginning of—
- (i) the next accounting period to begin after the date on which Revenue Scotland receives the notice, or
- 30 (ii) an alternative accounting period specified by Revenue Scotland by written notice to the person.
- (6) To avoid doubt, a taxable person that is required under subsection (3) to make quarterly returns, or that intends to move to making quarterly returns (see subsection (5)(b)), must comply with section 14 (duty to register for the tax).

19 Form and content of returns

- 35 (1) A return must include—
- (a) a declaration made by the taxable person that the return is, to the best of that person's knowledge, correct and complete, or
- (b) where the taxable person authorises an agent to complete the return, a declaration by the agent that the taxable person has declared to the agent that the information
- 40 provided in the return is, to the best of the taxable person's knowledge, correct and complete.

- (3) The return must be in the form, contain the information and be made in the manner that is specified by Revenue Scotland.
- (4) Revenue Scotland may specify different forms, information, and manners of return for different purposes.
- 5 (5) A return is treated as containing any information provided by the person making it for the purpose of completing the return.

20 Special accounting schemes

- (1) If a taxable person encounters or expects to encounter difficulties in obtaining and recording information about passengers and their agreements for carriage—
 - 10 (a) the person may apply to Revenue Scotland for approval to use a special accounting scheme for the tax, and
 - (b) Revenue Scotland may approve the use of a special accounting scheme if it considers it appropriate to do so having regard to the difficulties that the person has encountered or expects to encounter.
- 15 (2) A special accounting scheme is a scheme—
 - (a) whose details are agreed between Revenue Scotland and a taxable person, and
 - (b) that makes provision for methods of calculating how many passengers are to be regarded—
 - 20 (i) as chargeable passengers carried on chargeable aircraft operated by the person, and
 - (ii) as chargeable at each tax rate.
- (3) Revenue Scotland—
 - (a) may set terms and conditions that apply generally to the use of a special accounting scheme, and
 - 25 (b) must publish any such terms and conditions.
- (4) If a taxable person is using an approved special accounting scheme, the number of chargeable passengers carried by the person and the tax rate chargeable for the carriage of those passengers are to be regarded as the number and rate calculated in accordance with—
 - 30 (a) the details of the special accounting scheme, and
 - (b) any general terms and conditions published under subsection (3).
- (5) Revenue Scotland may, by written notice to a taxable person, withdraw its approval for the person's use of a special accounting scheme—
 - (a) at any time, on Revenue Scotland's initiative, or
 - 35 (b) on the application of the person.
- (6) A notice under subsection (5) has effect from the date specified in the notice.

Tax representatives

21 Duty to have tax representative

- 5 (1) A taxable person that does not have a business establishment or other fixed establishment in an EEA State must have a tax representative, unless the person is making occasional returns under section 18.
- (4) A person that is required by subsection (1) to have a tax representative must—
- (a) appoint a tax representative by written notice no later than 7 days after—
- 10 (i) the date on which the person becomes subject to the requirement, and
- (ii) each subsequent date (if any) on which an existing appointment of a tax representative by the person ceases to have effect (see section 26(3)), and
- (b) notify Revenue Scotland of the details of the appointment no later than 7 days after the appointment is made.
- (4A) A taxable person that is not required by subsection (1) to appoint a tax representative may appoint one voluntarily, but the appointment does not have effect for the purposes of this Act unless the details of the appointment are notified to Revenue Scotland.
