- (5) A person charged with an offence under this section has a defence if it is established that they were not aware, and neither suspected nor had reason to suspect, that the publication included relevant information.
- (6) For the purposes of subsections (2), (4) and (5), a matter is established if—

 - (b) the prosecution does not prove beyond reasonable doubt that it is not the case.
- (7) For the purposes of subsections (2), (3)(a)(ii) and (4)(a), that a person was aged 18 or over is established only if the person charged with the offence took reasonable steps to establish the person’s age.
- (8) For the purposes of subsection (3)(a), consent which purports to be specific to a particular publication may be taken to be consent to publication generally.
- (9) In this section—

<47E Decisions as to public interest for purposes of section 47BA

- (1) This section applies where, for the purposes of section 47BA, it falls to a court to determine whether it would be contrary to the public interest to make an order extending the period during which a restriction imposed by virtue of section 47(1A) or (1AA) is to apply.
- (2) In determining whether it is in the public interest to extend a restriction applying by virtue of section 47(1A), the court—

- (b) must, if any family member of the deceased person is aged under 18 at the date of determining what is in the public interest, treat as a primary consideration the factor mentioned at paragraph (a)(i) (effect on wellbeing) as it applies to that family member.
- (4) In a case where there is a section of the public that is already aware of the identity of a person, including a deceased person, who is or (as the case may be) was a person against or in respect of whom a relevant offence is alleged to have been committed, the court must not consider this to be a factor in favour of refusing to extend the restriction imposed by section 47(1A) or (as the case may be) (1AA).
- (5) In this section—
- “family member”, in relation to a deceased person, means—
 - (a) the person’s—
